

SECTION 6: CONCLUSION

The municipality has engaged various processes to address all the shortcomings in the previous IDP document, as identified by the relevant stakeholders including the MEC's comments as well as communities' inputs.

Tremendous progress has been made with regard to addressing the Key Challenges identified and faced by the Mogale City Local Municipality. In conclusion, it should always be borne in mind that "service delivery is a journey not a destination", therefore, constant consultation and engagement with stakeholders and clients should always be maintained to ensure continuous improvement.
